Explore Simple Ways to Improve Your Productivity

About me

I'm Lea, a former strategy consultant now working in financial services.

Throughout my career, I've noticed many professionals struggle with productivity due to a lack of simple workplace tips and efficient working methods. Unlike them, I've always sought and tested ways to enhance my work efficiency, sharing tips within a close network.

During the pandemic, I launched a YouTube channel and newsletter to share insights on productivity, digital organization, and maximizing Microsoft 365 tools with a wider audience.
